LOCATION

East Garston is a picturesque village approximately 6 miles north of Hungerford and in the Lambourn valley, famous for its racehorse training, and in beautiful countryside. It is conveniently located for the M4 (Junction 14) around 4 miles away. Rail links to London and the West Country are also found in Hungerford. Local facilities in East Garston include village stores, pubs and restaurants. A rural but easily accessible location. From Great Shefford you go along the Lambourn Road and Westfield will be found on the left hand side, just past the signs for East Garston (to the right), and past the Queens public house.
